foreign aid.

The Art of Crossing Cultures - Craig Storti

A helpful resource, but written with the cross-cultural businessman in mind. His ultimate success for crossing cultures is a successful business and more well-rounded traveler. Though the book was a textbook for a missions course while not necessarily being a book on missions or with a Christian perspective in mind, the information was helpful.

I've lifted this page's title, ``the art of crossing cultures," from a book by Craig Storti. I've selected it not for Storti's reasons, but rather because of the interesting notions produced by the interaction between the three words: art, crossing, and culture. You see, mixing it up with cultural others truly is an art.
